

Welcome to Sheffield CU

Festival of Fun 2025

Sheffield Children's University is excited to bring you a week of completely FREE taster activities across the city – specially designed for children with a Passport to Learning.

To book onto any of the activities listed in this programme, your child must have a Passport to Learning. These cost just £3.50 and are available from any Sheffield library. Once they have a passport, they can take part in any of the free sessions listed here and access a whole world of CU activities throughout the year.

Every hour of activity counts towards their Sheffield CU awards – so by taking part, your child will not only have fun and try something new, they'll also be building their extra-curricular learning profile and working towards their next CU certificate and award ceremony!

Let the adventure begin!

Get ready for Sector Safari – Sheffield's brand-new city centre careers trail, launching this summer!

Running from 23rd June to 10th August, this exciting and completely free experience invites young people and families to explore over 30 incredible local businesses, right in the heart of Sheffield.

At each business or venue on the trail, there will be a poster with a QR code. Scanning this code with your phone will give you more information about the company, the kind of jobs they offer and some fun facts about the area. The map also contains puzzles to complete as you make your way through the city.

From iconic venues like The Crucible and Curzon Cinema to civic landmarks like Sheffield Town Hall and Central Fire Station, the trail uncovers the diverse range of careers that power our city. You'll even find surprises like Miss Crystal and The Millennium Gallery on the route!

To begin the trail, head to one of the businesses below and collect a map to guide you around the trail. Once you've completed the trail, you can head back to any of the same locations to collect your completer badge. You do not need to book.

You can collect the trail map and completer badges from:
